Commercial Buyers Pay Top Prices For Simmental Bulls

Bozeman, Mt. — Simmental bulls are bringing strong prices from commercial breeders this spring, according to reports received from three states by American Simmental Association. A recent bull sale in Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa, percentage and purebred Simmental offerings averaged $1,810 and $1,874 respectively.

Kansas Simmental Association's annual Spring Bull Sale at Russell brought the highest average price in its six-year history. Two purebreds brought an average of $2,400, with one topping the sale at $2,800. Three 7/8-bloods averaged $1,848 (top $2,000); 22-23/4-bloods averaged $1,798 (top $2,700); and three 1/2-bloods averaged $1,800 (top $1,876).

In other sale results, 48 3/4-blood Simmental bulls brought an average of $1,810 at the annual MARC Bull Sale in 1978. Iowa Simmental Association's recent bull sale brought an average price of $1,874 for purebreds, $1,810 for 7/8-bloods, $1,798 for 22-23/4-bloods, and $1,800 for 1/2-bloods.

Panhandle Directs Set Record Movement, 40% Put on Feed

Amarillo, May 12 (F-S) — Slaughter steers 1.50-2.00 higher heifers 2.00-2.50 higher. The week's confined sales volume is the largest for any week on record in the area. Trade was rather slow over last weekend, but turned active Monday and stayed active the rest of the week. An estimated 40 percent of week's sales will either be weighed up and placed back on feed or will be given extended delivery dates. Most packers report the primary reason for this is to attempt to get some cattle weighing more to help fill orders for heavier weight fabricated cuts. Bulk of cattle being weighed up are steers weighing 900-1025 lbs. and heifers under 900 lbs. and were not scheduled to be on show lists until next week or later. Area packers purchased practically all oniro supply. Feedlots are extremely current.

"Turn on" your cattle to get up to 6000 lbs.
EXTRA GAIN
For every 50 head, in 120 days!

CASH IN ON EXTRA PROFITS
with extra gains that cost as little as 20¢ to 25¢ per pound
with
EVERGREEN BEEF DEVELOPER
T.M. Reg.

Many EVERGREEN BEEF DEVELOPER feeders get an extra pound of gain with every 2 to 3 lbs. of feed. They do in 6 months what normally takes 9 to 12 months!

Of course, nobody can predict exact weight gains per pound of feed; this varies some according to your cattle and grass conditions. Many Evergreen Beef Developer feeders get an extra pound of gain per head per day; that's 4500 lbs. in just 90 days! 9000 extra lbs. in 180 days for every 50 head! Soon after you start Evergreen Beef Developer, you can see your cattle "turn on", actually see the difference in their hair coats. If cattle are headed for the feedlot, these buyers often pay a premium for cattle that are already supplement-conditioned and ready to "take off" in the feedlot. Beef Developer can also be used to "turn on" your pasture to carry up to twice the cattle. Yes, for extra profit gains for developing replacements or for pasture stretching. Feed Evergreen Beef Developer. "It costs less, because it does more!"

Proposed Increases In Brucellosis Indemnity Rates for Cattle

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has proposed a separate brucellosis indemnity rate for female calves and non-registered dairy cattle. An increase in the indemnity rate for registered cattle was also proposed. Paul Hecton, director of brucellosis eradication for USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, said the proposed new rates are: $250 for registered cattle, $150 for non-registered dairy cattle, and $25 for female calves destroyed because of brucellosis infection or exposure. The $50 for other non-registered cattle would remain unchanged.

NEWS about LIMOUSIN

Around The Limo Loop

By KEN HOLLOWAY and BRUCE BROOKS

My, how time flies when you're having fun... and that is exactly what this 1978 Spring Sale Season has been - fast and fun! You know, it's been a pleasure to go to a weekend Limousin Sale and people bid with a smile! Hope the present trend in the cow market is so indication of several great years to come, and we think it will.

Just to prove our point, this spring American Cattle Services, Inc. has sold over 400 Limousin bulls for an average of $1,800. We think this proves beyond a doubt that the cowman has learned a hard lesson and is now choosing a bull that will add more frame and muscle structure resulting in more pounds across the scales.

Not only the bull market has been strong, however, the demand for good percentage Limousin females has been great. Just this past weekend at the Texas Limousin Sale, owned by Floyd and Polly McGowan and under the management of Allen Aristen, the demand for Limousin in all percentages was very strong. 1 Purebred bull sold for $5,000; 2-7/8 females with 15/16 bull calves totalled $3,750, averaged $1,875; 3 bred 7/8 totalled $2,725 averaged $1,868; 89 open 7/8 totalled $47,050 averaged $528; 17 percentage bulls totalled $19,145 averaged $1,126; 25 3/4 cows with 7/8 calves totalled $39,525 averaged $1,581; 7 bred 3/4 cows totalled $6,165 for an average of $879 - making a grand total of 93 lots selling for $123,200 for an average of $1,330.

Of course, we have had the pleasure of witnessing many exciting Limousin sales this spring and are currently booking an excellent group of production sales for this fall. At the risk of being repetitious we encourage you as a progressive cowman, to take a long look at your current program. Now is the time to look for the best bull to improve the performance of your calves, as well as the time to salvage those old cows and replace them with younger, more productive females.

We salute you as breeders for displaying such outstanding offerings of Limousin cattle this spring and encourage you to watch the sale calendar for an exciting fall schedule. And by the way... don't forget to bring a friend!

Brown said the Texas Limousin Assn. wishes to increase participation in these shows, and now is the time to let children, parents, county agents and FFA teachers know about the junior shows.

Eligibility to enter the show includes the following rules: For the Dallas show a boy or girl must own and have papers transferred in the NALF office by July 1, 1978. For the Fort Worth and San Antonio shows, the deadline is Nov. 1, 1978. This means the heifer should be bought at least two weeks prior to the deadline, and papers sent immediately to the NALF office with a note attached so the office can give them special attention, Brown said.

Show heifers must be at least 87 percent Limousin and born after Jan. 1, 1977, and be solid red or color.

Grand champions will receive $150 and reserve champions $75 in premium money in addition to class winnings. These heifers can be entered in the Houston Stock Show and sold in the Houston Limousin Sale.

There will also be a National Limousin Junior Heifer Show at the American Royal Stock Show in November 1978.

For further information on the shows in Texas, contact Bob Brown, Quannah, Texas 79252, phone 817/889-4466. For more information on the National show contact the North American Limousin Foundation.

Along with their brother Clay Holcomb, Sharalyn and Susan Holcomb, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Holcomb of Stanton, Texas, the Houston Livestock Show was highly prosperous.

Sharalyn, 17, showed "Flash", a 1198 pound 21-month-old Limousin steer bred by Bob Yuckley of South Dakota, to championship of the Limousin steer show and Susan, 13, showed "Flame", a 1134 pound steer bred by Leo Briggs of South Dakota to reserve champion steer honors. Sharalyn's "Flash" sold for $14,25 a pound totaling $17,043 to top all individual breed champions at the show. The 26 breed champions sold for an average price of $10,289.

Along with their brother Clay Holcomb, Sharalyn and Susan Holcomb, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Holcomb of Stanton, Texas, the Houston Livestock Show was highly prosperous.

IBSI Bull 111H, an Aug. 8, 1976 son of Ranchhoe sold for $20,000 to Ellis Limousin, Amber, Okla., to top the sale.

Two of the major buyers were Canadian Valley Limousins and Royce Nease & Sons, Gravette, Ark.

BRANGUS
The Ideal Mother.

There's just one reason you need Brangus cows working for you — PROFIT! Brangus is America's number one brood cow, because she consistently produces calves that are in great demand by stockers, feeders, packers, and consumers. And this means consistent profit for you!

Brangus females mature early, calving as 2-year-olds with no problems, and they give a 20% to 40% longer productive life. They are excellent milk producers and their calves gain faster, weigh heavier, and do better than calves of other breeds. With Brangus females, you eliminate sunburned teats, sore eyes, and other disease and pest-related problems.

Only animals with a 3/8 Brahman-5/8 Angus heritage are true Brangus, for only this combination gives animals with the hardiness, adaptability, and high production that is consistently characteristic of the Brangus breed. If you want PROFIT, you need BRANGUS!

SANTA GERTRUDIS NEWS

The Santa Circuit

By BUDDY SMITH
Well, May has been a busy month, and it's a long way from being over. We're scuttin' on down I-36 on our way to Tulsa. Buddy is driving and I'm writing. We're headed for the Santa Gertrudis College of Knowledge and the Spring Opportunity Sale. I'll well until Saturday to finish this masterpiece — I know you'll want a report on the College and the results of the sale.

The stupendous organizational effort that went into the Santa Gertrudis Second World Congress, Sao Paulo, Brazil, were more than justified by a resounding success story for the participants. Demand was strong, and distribution good. Females averaged over $3000, with bulls averaging over $14,000. Grand champion bull was shown by Bobby Shalton's Lea Johnson Ranch, and the reserve grand champion female was shown by Chaparral Ranch. Grand champion female was a native Brazilian animal.

Dick Vassar celebrated a birthday on the return flight from Brazil. I understand Mrs. Louisa Briggs started something when she gave Dick a birthday kiss. In fact, Dick was still at 45,000 feet when the plane landed. I'm not saying what birthday Dick celebrated, but just remember what they say on TV, Dick, "you're not getting older, you're getting better."

We just hit Oklahoma. I guess we'll be in good shape if the CB and the Fuzz-buster hold out until we reach Tulsa. Buddy only knows one speed, and it ain't slow. Don't forget the Doyle May second annual Santa Gertrudis "Breeders' Breakfast." It may be dry in South Texas, but there's nothing "dried" up about the response and enthusiasm for this sale. Perhaps this enthusiasm stems from the fact that Mr. May is offering a large number of quality range-conditioned Santa Gertrudis, featuring three-in-one packages. You can't beat South Texas hospitality and that's exactly what Mr. May is offering on May 25, from 5 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., at the Drummers Inn, South Texas Hospitality! The sale starts at 5 p.m. on May 25.

Buddy, Roger Lutz and Joe Marchman just returned from the Mid-America Sale at Springfield, Mo. Missouri is and will continue to be a Santa Gertrudis stronghold. You won't find a more enthusiastic group of Santa Gertrudis breeders anywhere. The party the evening before the sale was well attended, with Leonard O'Brien, president of the Mid-America Association, presiding at the meeting following dinner. A petition was passed and signed, requesting that SGBI review its decision to drop Springfield as an SGBI approved show. The show was dropped because Springfield's show classes did not conform to the rules as set out by SGBI. Perhaps in this situation the old adage, "You can't see the forest for the trees" would be applicable. It was always my opinion the main purpose of a show was to promote and advertise Santa Gertrudis in a given area. It would be a shame to lose Springfield, especially since it is the only show at this time of the year, and is the starting point for the fall show circuit. The Mid-America membership even indicated that they would furnish matching funds, if SGBI would.

The Oklahoma Santa Gertrudis Association has set Saturday, June 24 as the date for its "Picture Perfect" Sale of top quality cattle. The sale will be held at the Green Country Cow Palace in Tulsa, Oklahoma, beginning at 1 p.m. Gerald Bowle, West Point, Georgia, will be the auctioneer.

Because of the increasing popularity of Santa Gertrudis cattle in Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and other states nearby in the Midwest and Upper South, and the high quality standards demanded by the screening committee, the Oklahoma association has developed into one of the prestige sales in the breed. This year, the screening committee has selected only 100 exceptional animals from the large pro-entry list. Included are some outstanding proven herd sires and herd sire prospects, and a top set of females including three-in-one packages, pure, bred and open heifers. All cattle in the sale have been consigned by members of the Oklahoma Santa Gertrudis Association. Cattle will be available for inspection by Friday afternoon, June 23.

Cowboy Hall of Fame as a 1978 sponsor of the Western Heritage Sale, Western art lovers and collectors will see as fine a representation of paintings and sculptures ever assembled anywhere. Through the Hall's help and direction the elite of the finest contemporary Western artists will be represented, and 26 pieces will be sold at auction. Other pieces by the artists will be sold in an art sale held in conjunction with the affair. Among the artists represented are Jim Reno, Tom Lee, Robert Loughheed, Jim Reno, Gordon Sndow, Melvin Warren, Conrad Schwlering, Richard Greaves, Wilson Hurley, Morris Rippel, Clark Bronson, John Clymer, Valoy Eaton and Edward Fraughton. There will also be works by Kenneth P. Riley, Harley Brown, Rod Goebel, Dale Hallbeck, James Kramer, Nick Eggenhofer, Nan Jacobs, Frank Tauriello, Lajoa Markos, Robert Summers, William Whitaker, George Carlson, Duane Bryers and Robert Kubo.

Bidding is expected to be heavy in all three categories of this year's sale, and to honor the high prices of an individual item in each category, sponsors will present these three persons with original Western Heritage Sale buckles, designed and cast by well-known sculptor Jim Reno.

Many celebrities and notable guests are expected to attend this year, and national press coverage is again anticipated. Sponsors feel that this attendance and notoriety are due to the uniqueness of the event, and they may be right. As one New York tourist put it last year, "I came to Houston on vacation, but I haven't ever left the hotel. This is better than anything I could hope to see anywhere else!"

AMERICAN RED BRANGUS ASSOCIATION NEWS

By John Soseowry

Thanks to the 17 progressive Red Brangus breeders who have nominated a heifer for the first ARBA Superior Quality Red Brangus Heifer Futurity to be held in December. With these 17 and the possibility of a few late entries, we are confident we are confident of a great sale.

All active Red Brangus breeders and especially those who have nominated a heifer for the first ARBA Superior Quality Red Brangus Heifer Futurity will want to start planning maximum personal benefit from the Red Brangus feature issue of the Cattlemen Magazine in November and our sale advertising in other publications as well.

Within the next 80 days you will be receiving information on advertising costs for individual as well as co-op ads. It will maximize your returns on dollars invested to reserve space early and get priority as to location in the publications.

Don't underestimate the power of good advertising. As an example, what comes to your mind when you write the word Mustang... car or horse? If I'd asked you that question 20 years ago, the answer would have been unanimously a horse. That's what good advertising can do. Red Brangus cattle are beginning to break loose on the purebred cattle scene, just like the Mustang car did in the automobile business years ago.

Malcolm Levi had a great business 80 years ago—produced calves with more growthiness than the English breeds while retaining their good beef characteristics, produced a live calf every year (small at birth), produced a polled animal (remove those horns naturally), produced a cow that will first calve unsisted at 2 and continue regularly until age 15 or 16, instead of 10, produced an animal more disease resistant than the English breed with no pinkeye problem, etc., and keep that red color that the majority of cattlemen worldwide prefer. And Malcolm Levi along with his son Mike and several others, did exactly what they set out to

Presidio Rancher Gets Texas' Second 1978 Screwworm Case

The year's second lab confirmed Texas screwworm sample was collected in Presidio County May 6 and identified May 8, says Dr. M. E. (Cotton) Meadows, Jr., the director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Screwworm Eradication Program. Says Hayes Mitchell of Mitchell Cattle Co. collected the screwworm larvae. They came from an infested calf navel 20 miles southwest of Marfa. On April 21 the year's first Texas case was collected about 45 miles east of El Paso in Hudspeth County. It came from a horse.

Endangered Species Act Could Prevent National Development

Washington — "If colored to its limit, the Endangered Species Act could halt national growth and development in America," spokesmen for three major livestock organizations warned Congressional committees recently.

A provision in this law states, in effect, that "all other federal goals and purposes will be subordinate to the purposes of the Endangered Species Act." It was pointed out in a joint statement by the National Cattlemen's Assn., National Wool Growers Assn., and the Public Lands Council.

"When it is considered that this Act has the potential of listing as 'endangered' hundreds of thousands of animal and plant species, it is an exaggeration to suggest that the Endangered Species Act could wreck havoc and delays involving hundreds of programs," Ronald A. Micheli of NCA's and PLG's Washington staff told House and Senate subcommittees.

adequate consideration for anything other than a single-minded purpose to preserve species, including those species for which there are little, or no sound scientific data on which to conclude they are 'endangered'."

"There are no provisions in the law for the evaluation of the 'cost-effectiveness' of species preservation programs," he said. "No assessment of the economic consequences of this program is made. There is no consideration of the siting of land and resource uses which might be lost if certain actions are taken under this program."

Micheli singled out the section of the act for "interagency cooperation," stating that the cooperative is in fact strictly "one-way." That section, he said, is "incredibly far-reaching" and "means that no matter what the federal government does, first consideration must be given to the preservation of endangered and threatened species. All federal agencies are required to evaluate their actions... and 'utilize their authorities' to preserve designated species. Agencies can do nothing that might infringe on a designated species or habitat. The Endangered Species program comes first and foremost."

The livestock industry spokesmen said that "the Endangered Species program truly is the super federal program to which all other programs must pay homage."

The Act allows the Secretary of Interior to halt activities "which might even marginally affect a listed species habitat," he said. "It already is having a large impact on the management of public lands and its potential for impact upon an individual's private property rights is practically unlimited."

Despite its "tremendous potential impact," he continued, the Act does not adequately define many of its key terms such as "endangered," "threatened," and "critical habitat." Micheli charged that the program does not require any objective criteria for determining whether a species is endangered. "There is no systematic evaluation of assembled data. When a species is nominated for listing, little detail is provided on the habitat, population, and characteristics of the species involved. The listing is based on subjective, 'best-guess' opinion of some biologists or botanists. Without objective criteria, how can anyone challenge the accuracy or validity of the designation?" he asked.

This type of program improves the appearance, gives livestock the "good doing" look — this convinces your buyers they are "worth more."

TRA Board To Meet June 2 At Denton. The board of directors of Texas Red Angus Assn. will meet Friday night, June 2, at the American Red Angus Association office in Denton, and a general membership meeting will be held the following morning at the Clark McKelvey Field Day at Justin.

Clifford Halfness, Rowena, TRA president, said the directors will discuss possibilities of sponsoring a co-signment sale of Red Angus this year, and possible bull tests at Navarro College at Corsicana.

"We are also going to discuss efforts to resume the Junior Red Angus Show at the State Fair of Texas in 1979, and next year's RA shows at the Houston and San Antonio livestock shows," he said.

TJBA Plans Show For July 7 & 8. Fredericksburg, Tx. - The Texas Junior Brahman Association has scheduled their TJBA Annual Summer Invitational Heifer Show for July 7-8 here at Gillespie County Fairgrounds.

The junior association sponsors this show and puts up all of the premium money. Texas ranches are sponsoring trophies for first place animals in all eight classes. Any FFA, 4-H or TJBA member is eligible to show.

A full slate of activities has been planned for both days. In addition to the judging there will be the selection of the 1978-79 TJBA Queen, educational programs, a dance, a picnic lunch, and a swimming program.

For more information, rules and entry blanks, write to the American Brahman Breeders Association, 1816 La Cocha, Houston, Texas 77054.

Export Credit Opens Way for More Polled Herefords to Chile. Kansas City - The U.S. Department of Agriculture's approval of commercial export credits to farmers and ranchers in Chile opens the way for the first large-scale purchase of $3-million worth of Polled Hereford beef cattle from American ranchers in 10 years.

The Commodity Credit Corp., a private corporation run by the USDA, has approved the huge cattle loan request negotiated by the American Polled Hereford Association as a part of its foreign marketing development program.

This will result in the purchase of some 4,000 commercial Polled Hereford heifer calves for export to Chile.

The $3-million cattle purchase loan gave impetus to an additional $55-million loan approval for the purchase of surplus wheat from American farmers, according to the report received in Kansas City by AFEA President Orville K. Sweet.

Confirmation of the approval of the $35-million loan package by the Commodity Credit Corp. came from Kelly M. Harrison, general sales manager of USDA's Commercial Export Programs in Washington, D.C. The loan was approved for a three-year term, but negotiations are underway to extend this to a seven-year term for the cattle purchase loan portion.

The Banco de Chile in Santiago, and other eligible banks, will be the $35-million loan borrowing agencies for groups of Chilean livestock producers and farmers, and will be responsible for collateral and security according to Harrison.

At Louisa, Servino's Up. According to a recent survey, money lenders in Texas are serving more farmers and ranchers, and the average loan amount has increased. Interest rates also appear to be leveling off. The demand for short-term loans was up, including an increase in operating loans. Lenders expected farm and ranch income to be lower through 1978, and they also are anticipating that the demand for financing will increase.
